

The Labyrinth Society

Requirements for Researchers Requesting Labyrinth Research Participants

Researchers who are conducting Labyrinth research and would like to recruit research participants in their study need to submit the following information to the TLS Research Committee Chair a minimum of eight (8) weeks prior to participant recruitment date to include the following – complete the blanks and use check marks in check boxes that apply:

Researcher's information:

Name:

Phone:

Mailing Address: Street/PO Box, City, State, Zip

Email address:

Status: candidate for master's thesis , doctoral dissertation , other Please explain

Attached Abstract of the research proposal including how participants are being selected.

Affiliation: University: Name/City/State

Agency: Name/City/State

Community/Organization/Group affiliation:

Name/City/State

Attached Copy of the IRB approval letter (if affiliated with an institution) or a letter of recommendation from group or agency. Please see the IRB template - TLS Research section <https://labyrinthociety.org/useful-research-resources>

Attached Copy of Research Participant Consent Form

Anticipated 'start date and end dates' for recruitment for research participants

Start date: Mo., day, year

End date: Mo., day, year

Identify which category of "Framework for Labyrinth Research" the study fits: See: <https://labyrinthociety.org/assumptions-and-framework>

Categories: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7

Target completion date of study: Month/day/year:

Yes, I agree to share the findings of finding research with TLS (if the findings are published, they can be added to the TLS Research Bibliography).

Once the above information is submitted to the TLS Research Chair, it will be reviewed by the TLS Research Committee; the researcher will be notified within four (4) weeks of the outcome of the request: Approved for posting on TLS Website to recruit participants; Not Approved; or Approved pending additional information.

Once the Request has been approved to recruit participants, a link will be added to the TLS Website which includes information about the study, recruiting participants, dates for recruitment as well as an end date, and where/how the results will be disseminated. The Researcher will be notified by email.