Description: The labyrinth is a sacred container, a boundary between unmanifest and manifest, and a holographic field of consciousness informed by the land it is on and the community of people who walk it. In this hands-on workshop based on the Akashic Field Theory of Ervin Laszlo, we will explore the principle that physical reality is a holographic field in which everything is connected with every other thing through flows of energy and information.

Title: Quick and Easy Labyrinths for Community Events, with Lars Howlett.

Developed by professional labyrinth designer and builder Lars Howlett for a monthly art walk in his neighborhood, see first-hand how Classical and Chartres-style labyrinths can be adapted for different settings of various size and shapes. Draw these 3 & 5-circuit patterns using easy methods and practice installing them together as a group using inexpensive materials.

The tour is designed to take visitors throughout Houston’s many neighborhoods and sites – the Houston Zoo and Hermann Park, the medical center, the “cool” arts district (Montrose), downtown and Fourth Ward, ritzy River Oaks, Buffalo Bayou, Memorial Park, and a bit of Chinatown. We will not stop in all of those neighborhoods but we will see them from the bus. Visitors will also learn about Houston’s rich history along the way. The tour’s final stop will be a reception at the downtown Hines Center labyrinth.
