

Schedule

*Exploring Labyrinths: Paths and Possibilities in Higher Education
TLS Pre-Conference Event
Friday, October 20, 2023*

(Optional labyrinth walk before main session using Kanuga labyrinth or other available labyrinth)

- 8:00 – 9:00 Registration/Check-In
- 9:00 - 9:15 Welcome/Intros/Housekeeping
Conference Team
- 9:15 - 9:45 Labyrinth 101 followed by Finger Labyrinth Walk
- 9:45 -10:45 Labyrinth Café: Exploring the Labyrinth on Campus
*Interactive networking and sharing session among participants.
Facilitated by conference team.*
- 10:45 - 11:00 Break
- 11:00 -12:00 Keynote Presentation. Labyrinths on Campus and Beyond: Exploring the labyrinth as a creative resource for universities and colleges
Jan Sellers
- 12:00 - 1:15 Lunch and optional labyrinth walk (at various locations)
Lunch is included with registration. A labyrinth will be available in the workshop room and participants may also use the onsite outdoor Kanuga labyrinth.
- 1:15 - 2:15 Panel Presentation. Paths and Programs: Case studies and curricula with invited presenters
Katja Marquart: Moderator, Presenters: Marc Craddock, Justin Forbes, Melissa Powers, and Amanda Todd
- 2:15 - 2:30 Break
- 2:30 - 3:15 The Three B's of Diversity and Inclusion
Frank Faine
- 3:15 – 3:45 Closing Reflections
NOTE: Participants are warmly invited to attend the Research Sharing Circle [part of the Gathering's main program, chaired by Kathryn McLean] which will begin about 4:00pm in this room.

GENERAL NOTES: The overall interactive structure/format of this conference is designed to provide a space to explore the many ways in which the labyrinth has been used on campus; sharing and learning about new ways of incorporating the labyrinth in the classroom and beyond. Our aim is also to facilitate new connections amongst participants and to create a new higher education affinity group within TLS, leading to more events in the future.